

Zia Consulting & Alfresco

Delivering ECM Modernization Solutions for Your Enterprise

Zia Consulting is focused on content solutions in two key areas: Automation Systems to streamline your document processes--saving time and money across your enterprise; and providing ECM solutions that work the way you do ("Easy ECM")--replacing existing tools, processes, and systems to deliver better content management, control, and collaboration.

As an Alfresco Platinum Partner and Alfresco Partner of the Year, Zia has helped organizations from small companies to the largest enterprises, across the Public Sector from federal to local governments, to leverage Alfresco and create next-generation content management solutions.

Document Automation Systems

How do organizations more efficiently and effectively capture and process documents to save money, provide better service, deliver actionable data metrics, and more? By replacing manual processes and ineffective legacy technologies, Zia's Document Automation Solutions provide measurable benefits across a wide range of use cases including:

- Mortgage Processing with the ZiaOne Loan Automation System (LAS)
- Paperless Document and Records Management utilizing Intelligent Capture
- Invoice Processing with the ZiaOne Invoice Automation System (IAS)
- eForms and Portal Systems for Online Applications, eFiling & more
- Insurance Processing with the ZiaOne Insurance Document Automation System
